Young Ringing Leaders through the D of E Scheme

"The bells! The bells!"

THE DUKE
OF EDINBURGH'S
AWARD

CCCBR Strategic Objectives

- TO ENCOURAGE AND CELEBRATE EXCELLENCE IN RINGING BY:
 - Recruiting and developing new learners and new leaders
 - Engaging maturely with the Church and other relevant stakeholders
 - Continuing to raise positive public awareness of ringing
 - Celebrating and promoting the historical legacy of ringing
 - Promoting excellence in standards
 - Increasing direct participation in the Central ringing organisation's activities

CCCBR Mission

THE CENTRAL COUNCIL OF CHURCH
BELL RINGERS

To be the strategic leader and public voice of the ringing community, the arbiter of standards; and to promote an environment where ringing can flourish

CCCBR Vision

BELL RINGERS

A vibrant community of ringers; with bell ringing widely valued as an enjoyable mental and physical exercise and unique performing art, which enhances the life of both community and church

D of E – guiding principles

BELL RINGERS

- The Duke of Edinburgh's Award (DofE) is a world leading youth charity which gives all 14-24 year olds the chance to develop skills for life and work. We engage, inspire and empower over 300,000 young people a year across the UK and from every possible background.
- The DofE Award is a game-changer. We know that perseverance and passion for long-term goals is linked to success in education, life and work. Our structured programme of volunteering, physical and skills based challenges inspire, guide and support young people to achieve.
- We believe that anything is possible and the possibilities are endless. The positive effects of the DofE are proven and far-reaching. Communities are enriched with passionate and driven volunteers, businesses benefit from work-ready, competent recruits and young people are given the confidence to shine.
