

Plain Hunt Quiz - Have you got it?

Place a tick next to the correct answer		✓
1.	If you are leading, is your bell ringing...
	a. Second
	b. First
	c. Last
2.	If you are ringing in a 6-bell tower and you are covering to Plain Hunt on 5 bells, are you ringing...
	a. The treble
	b. The tenor
	c. The 5
3.	When you ring two blows at the back in Plain Hunt, you are said to be...
	a. Lying
	b. Hunting
	c. Resting
4.	When you are plain hunting, how many speeds must you make your bell ring at?
	a. Two
	b. One
	c. Three
5.	When plain hunting and moving from seconds place to thirds place, are you...
	a. Hunting up
	b. Hunting down
6.	When plain hunting and moving from fourths place to thirds place, are you said to be...
	a. Going in
	b. Going out
7.	If you are hunting from the lead up to fifths place, are you...
	a. Running in
	b. Running out
8.	If you are ringing two blows at the back in Plain Hunt on 5 bells, are you ringing...
	a. Handstroke/backstroke
	b. Backstroke/handstroke
9.	If you are ringing two blows at the back in Plain Hunt on 6 bells, are you ringing...
	a. Handstroke/backstroke
	b. Backstroke/handstroke
10.	Plain hunt on 5 bells is called...
	a. Plain Hunt Minimus
	b. Plain Hunt Doubles
	c. Plain Hunt Minor
11.	Plain hunt on 6 bells is called...
	a. Plain Hunt Major
	b. Plain Hunt Maximus
	c. Plain Hunt Minor

12.	When leading, we ring with an 'open handstroke'. Does this mean...
	a. We must ring very close to the tenor's backstroke
	b. We must leave a little gap between the tenor's backstroke and our handstroke
	c. We must leave a little gap between the tenor's handstroke and our handstroke 13.	When you leave the lead and move up into seconds place, the bell you ring after is known as...
	a. Your working bell
	b. Your partner
	c. Your after bell
14.	In Plain Hunt, when is the next time you ring over this bell...
	a. Before you lead next time
	b. Your first blow at the back
	c. Your second blow at the back 15.	When you are hunting down, you ring over a bell in seconds place at backstroke, just before you lead. Is this bell your...
	a. After bell
	b. Course bell
	c. Your friend
16.	In Plain Hunt, when is the next time you will ring over this bell again
	a. After you lead
	b. On your first blow at the back
	c. On your second blow at the back 17.	If another ringer says to you 'I'll take you off the lead', does this mean...
	a. You must lead at your next blow at handstroke
	b. You must ring after them in seconds place at the next handstroke after leading
	c. You must lead next backstroke 18.	If a ringer says to you 'You are coursing me' or 'Course me down'. When do you ring over their bell...
	a. In two blows' time
	b. In thirds place going in
	c. In seconds place at backstroke before going into the lead at handstroke 19.	When ringing Plain Hunt you must start to learn...
	a. Your course bell
	b. Your after bell
	c. The number of the bell to ring over next
	d. To count your place
20.	Why is learning to count your place so important?
	a. So you don't get bored
	b. To help with your numeracy skills
	c. Because all method ringing is based on knowing which place your bell is in, and this is an essential skill as you progress

Answers: 1b, 2b, 3a, 4c, 5a, 6a, 7b, 8b, 9a, 10b, 11c, 12b, 13c, 14c, 15b, 16b, 17b, 18c, 19d, 20c